Online procurement is an interactive technical note that develops the concept of online procurement. It describes the various online procurement tools and the way they work and their application.

This interactive technical note includes the following sections:

- Basic Concepts
- Selection and negotiation
- Transaction
- Exercise
This technical note has many examples and exercises, as well as:

• A real simulation of an online auction.
• A final exercise with feedback.
• A practical case.