Management Accounting is an interactive tutorial which is included in students pre-programs to ensure that they begin their Masters program with a sound knowledge of management accounting.

This tutorial contains the following elements to cement the key concepts:

- Videos
- Charts
- Interactive exercises
- Challenges
The tutorial is developed through a case study example of a fast food restaurant. The student progresses through the case by completing tasks and are guided by feedback.