Snacks case study is a case study which enables students to practice the fundamentals of financial accounting.

• Students work through the case by accounting for the events and completing the financial statements.
A variety of different transactions are included in the exercise so that students become familiar with the main accounting techniques.