Dialogue is an interactive exercise introducing the practice of shooting and editing dialogue, with the help of a simulation.

The different parts are:

- Filming and editing
- The scale of shots and the axis of action
- Published
In the filming and editing part the student has to choose between different shots in the sequence according to the dramatic progression.
In the published part it is possible to see and evaluate the work of the class.